

Praise for 4 Generations!
December 7, 2006
North Carolina Community College System Conference

Wonderful – I enjoyed the way the generations were broken down to understand differences among individuals.

Linda Williams, HRD Coordinator, Wilson Tech. Comm. College

Excellent. Everyone will leave with a better understanding of the different generations.

Connie Harrell, Program Consultant, DHHS/DSS

What a wonderful use of time. I learned so much and now I understand how I fit in the workplace.

Amanda Council, HRD Instructor, Wilkes CC

“Don’t miss this opportunity to learn about those around you!”

Rosa Andrews, HRD Director, Johnston Community College

This was a peaceful and positive interactive tool to learn more about each other.

Fun and thought-provoking. Well-worth the time!

Molly Cline, Director HRD, Rowan-Cabarrus Comm. College

This workshop was very beneficial and informative. It will enable me to be more accepting of others

Demetrice LeSune, Consultant, Employment Security Comm.

Fun – Light bulbs went on!

June Honeywilt, Coordinator, Davidson County Comm. College

Exciting – Knowledgeable – Resourceful. I now understand my mother and children better!

Employment Security Commission

“Excellent presenter – great energy. Very interesting and useful information. Bring Marcia back!”
