NV Court Staff, Reno NV

A day of sunshine, when snowing outside, that can be taken back to the office with energy to move forward.

Anita “Pete” Whitehead, Sparks Justice Court, NV

In our everyday lives, both personal and professional, it is terrific when a seminar (“Working Together Through Changing Times!”) comes along and makes you laugh and helps you learn to communicate better with all those who are in my circle of business associates and family and friends!

Chris Hansen, Supervisor, Sparks Justice Court, NV

In my opinion, “Working Together Through Changing Times!” should be presented to everyone. Then the working world may be able to get a lot accomplished in a better manner.

Shari Johnson, Deputy Criminal Clerk II, Sparks Justice Court, NV

Humorous, realistic and interactive! I feel that not only is the session on change important for the workforce and daily life, information on change will be accepted more readily when presented by a knowledgeable, well-spoken and humorous presenter!

Barbara Belcher, Court Counselor II, Reno JC, NV

Hilarious and energetic! Ms. Jackson is a very, very good speaker. She is witty and she knows a lot about change in real life and the work place.

Angela P. Rogers, Court Clerk II, Reno JC, NV

“Working Together Through Changing Times!” gave insight as to communicating with different styles than your own. The seminar was action-oriented, informative and humorous.

Karen Stancil, Supervising Clerk III, Civil Division, Reno JC, NV

The opening, allowing the participants to introduce themselves to each other, broke the ice and allowed for cooperation through the other group activities. It really put you in the mind set of cooperation with the different communication styles in the office.

Patricia White, Deputy I, Fifth Judicial District Court, Mineral County, NV

I gained valuable information that I can take back to my office to help everyone implement the constant changes we are experiencing.

Tammi Odegard, Chief Deputy Clerk, Pahrump Justice Court, NV

I learned that although my “type” of person is out numbered in my office, I can be very helpful with assisting other “types” of people in dealing with change.

Alisa Peugh, Deputy Court Clerk, Pahrump Justice Court, NV

I felt that the time spent was well worth it. I gained insight into my self and why I react as I do, and how to revise some of it.

Nola Philpot, Juvenile Court Clerk II, 5th Judicial District, NV

There is hope!

Richardo A. Bonvicin, Chief Marshall, City of North Los Vegas, NV

“Working Together Through Changing Times!” was extremely helpful in my learning to deal with co-workers who are negative to change.

Be prepared to be active, participate, have fun, and to seriously think about the issues in your own life and your reactions and responses to stress and change.

“Working Together Through Changing Times!” was informative, changing, educating, and insightful. Everyone is different; think differently and act differently. They won’t change...but you can!
